

Home Craft

Historic Quilts, Needlework, and Decorative Arts of Lenawee County

"He who will not look backward with reverence will not look forward with hope."

- Edmund Burke

ANTIQUUE QUILT EXHIBIT

JULY-DECEMBER 2014

LENAWEE COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM

Historic Textiles Including:

- Quilts from 1850-1950
- Lace
- Tatting
- Crochet
- Clothing
- Embroidery

Regular Museum Hours:

Tuesday– Friday
10:00 am to 2:00 pm

Saturday
10:00 am to 4:00 pm

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

Free Admission

Thursday July 24 @ 7 pm

A History of the American Quilt

Beth Donaldson – Quilter, Author & Quilt Historian
MSU Museum's Great Lakes Quilt Center

Beth's presentation uses quilts from the MSU Great Lakes Quilt Center and her own collection to illustrate the history of the American quilt. The audience is encouraged to bring old quilts for a show and tell discussion at the end of the lecture.

Thursday August 21 @ 7 pm

Hanging By A Thread:

Caring For Vintage Textiles and Clothing

Fran Faile – Textile Conservator. The Henry Ford

An overview of textile conservation and how to store and display antique textiles. Fran encourages people to bring one or two pieces for a show and tell discussion at the end of her presentation.

Sponsors:

Adrian Noon Rotary

Lenawee
County
Historical Society

Lenawee Historical Society Museum
110 E. Church St.
Adrian, Michigan 49221
517-265-6071

www.lenaweemuseum.org